ORDER

Issued: April 16, 2015 Released: April 16, 2015

The Presiding Judge has received the parties' Proposed Findings of Fact on Issue G. The trial phase of Issue G as set in this proceeding is now complete.¹

The parties must prepare the remaining issues for hearing. Discovery shall commence on May 1, 2015, and shall conclude on August 31. It is recognized that discovery must be conducted by multiple depositions on several issues, and summer scheduling may create inconvenience for witnesses. Primarily to avoid witness inconvenience, the parties are encouraged to minimize use of depositions and file timely motions as needed for rescheduling.

¹ The Conclusions of Law on Issue G, as well as Replies to Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, shall be scheduled after the hearing on the remaining issues. This scheduling is required to avoid further delay.

Document discovery will be the first order of business. Counsel should meet forthwith to map out the scope of requests and swift procedures for production and exchange.

Creating circumstances necessitating motions to compel will not be welcome.

SO ORDERED.
